HC IAS OPEN LECTURE

Two Tongues, Two Border Crossers: La Morenita and Gloria Anzaldúa

Prof. David Carrasco

Neil L. Rudenstine Professor of the Study of Latin America
Harvard Divinity School

David Carrasco will give an illustrated lecture on two borderland figures: The Virgin of Guadalupe also known as La Morenita and the cultural critic, Gloria Anzaldúa. We will see how both used bilingual speech (two tongues) to challenge mono-lingual, mono-cultural societies and have become inspirational symbols of identity among Latinx communities.
